BedandBreakfast.com Releases its List of Best Undiscovered Incredibly Romantic Inns

Austin, TX - As Valentine's Day approaches, BedandBreakfast.com editors share the inside secrets about the best undiscovered inns for celebrating romance. While a Valentine's getaway to any B&B is a treat, the inns on this list promise special memories enhanced by quality amenities, distinctive décor, and superior hospitality. Many have dramatic mountain or water views, while others offer luxury at an amazingly affordable price. Each recommended inn has been visited by well-known travel writer and editor Sandy Soule, or a member of her editorial team. There is absolutely no fee or membership requirement of any kind for inclusion in this list, just the ability to provide unparalleled romantic getaways.

Take it from the editors of BedandBreakfast.com, the largest online directory of B&Bs, these 25 undiscovered gems promise romance year-round, many at an incredibly affordable rate.

Northeast:

ME: LimeRock Inn, Rockland: Turreted Queen Anne mansion with easy access to Rockland and Camden art and coastal museums. Eclectic décor mixes traditional and whimsical.
